Low-Risk Criminal Offense List and Appeal Process

A low-risk criminal offense is a nonviolent offense, such as fraud, that DFPS determines has a low risk of impacting a child's safety or well-being, or the stability of a child's placement with a relative or fictive kin. Below is the current list of offenses DFPS has determined to be low-risk criminal offenses.

If you were denied placement of a child for any low-risk criminal offense listed below, you have a right to an appeal. If your home assessment is denied due to a low-risk criminal offense you will receive a letter along with Form 6583 Request to Appeal a Denied Home Assessment Based on a Low Risk Criminal Offense. To request an appeal, you must complete Form 6583 and return it to the person and address identified on the form. The appeal will be conducted, either in person or via telephone, within 15 days of receipt of your request. Regional administration will review your home assessment, taking into consideration when the conviction occurred, whether multiple convictions exist, and your current circumstances. Please note that all placement decisions are decided based on the child's best interest. Having your denial overturned may not result in the child being placed in your home, however, you may be considered as a permanency resource for the child.
