Hearts for CPS Children Adoption Festival

WHO: Approximately 93 Children, eight years old and older, in CPS custody who are available for adoption.

WHAT: Child Protective Services in partnership with the Rotary Club of Houston will host a unique event which allows children who are available for adoption to interact with families who have completed the requirements to become adoptive parents. Most of these children are older, part of a sibling group or have special needs. They are in CPS custody due to abuse, neglect, or abandonment by their own biological families.

WHEN: Saturday, February 7, 2015
10:30am--2pm

WHERE: Harris County Department of Education
6300 Irvington
Houston, Texas
