3. Best Interest Checklist

TFC 153.002: Best Interest of child

Always primary consideration in determining conservatorship, possession, and access.

TFC 263.307: Factors designated in determining best interest

Holley v. Adams, 544 S. W. 2d 367 (Tex. 1976)

Non-exclusive list of factors to consider, including

- Desires of child;
- Emotional and physical needs of child now & future;
- Emotional & physical danger now & future;
- Parental abilities;
- Programs available to assist parents;
- Plans for the child by individuals seeking custody or agency;
- Stability of home or proposed placement;
- Acts or omissions of parent indicating relationship is not proper one; and
- Any excuse for acts or omissions.

Suggestions for proving Best Interest

Foster Parent Testimony :

Typical day with the child:

Meetings/appointments they attend with or for the child.

Training/classes they have attended.

Special needs of child and how they meet them.

How child was before and now.

If child wants to stay with them vs. go home.

Future plans for child: considering adoption?

Psychologist, Therapist, or Adoption Specialist's Testimony:

Permanency-what it means for this child.

Low success rate of non-adoptive homes vs. permanent placement.

Effects of changes in placement to this child

“Attachment Disorder”-behaviors now & future behavioral problems child may have if not addressed.

Detrimental effect on child of continued contact with parent.

Psychological effect of “closure” on the healing process.
